31st ISL WORLD CONGRESS OF LYMPHOLOGY

CHENNAI | INDIA

Integrating Science, Surgery and Synergy for the Future of Lymphatic Care

15th to 18th SEPTEMBER 2027

InterContinental, ECR, Chennai

WELCOME TO THE LARGEST 31ST ISL WORLD CONGRESS OF LYMPHOLOGY

We are delighted to invite you to the 31st World Congress of the International Society of Lymphology (ISL), which will be held from 15th to 18th September 2027 at the prestigious InterContinental Chennai Mahabalipuram Resort.

This landmark congress will bring together leading professionals, clinicians, researchers, and scientists from across the globe to exchange knowledge and advancements in the field of lymphology. The scientific program will feature keynote lectures, expert panel discussions, educational workshops, interactive sessions, poster and oral presentations, and exclusive meet-the-expert sessions.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage in comprehensive discussions on anatomy, physiology, diagnostic approaches, and both surgical and non-surgical treatments of lymphological disorders and lipedema. Dedicated sessions on wound care in venous and lymphatic pathologies will also be included. The congress will recognize excellence through awards and prizes for outstanding oral and poster presentations, with special recognition for young researchers and contributions in surgery, physiology, and lymphatic imaging.

Set against the serene coastal beauty of Chennai, the venue offers a perfect blend of modern luxury and cultural richness. Known for its vibrant heritage, scenic beaches, and warm hospitality, Chennai provides an inspiring environment for both academic exchange and meaningful networking. Delegates can also enjoy curated social programs and optional pre- and post-congress tours to explore the cultural and historical highlights of the region.

With a shared goal of advancing knowledge, strengthening clinical skills, and exploring innovative diagnostic and therapeutic strategies in lymphology, we warmly invite you to mark your calendars and be part of this significant global gathering.

We look forward to welcoming you to Chennai for an enriching and memorable experience.

PLACES TO VISIT

From the Marina shoreline to UNESCO-listed Mamallapuram, museums, spiritual landmarks, and day trips - plan visits around your programme with these trusted starting points.

Marina Beach

One of the longest urban beaches in the world, Marina is a Chennai icon - ideal for sunrise walks, sea breezes, and a true sense of the city's scale along the Bay of Bengal.

Bronze Museum

Part of the Government Museum, Chennai-among the oldest museums in the subcontinent, founded in 1851-the bronze galleries span six buildings and dozens of galleries, showcasing masterpieces ideal between congress sessions.

Mahabalipuram

Mamallapuram (Mahabalipuram), a short drive from Chennai, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site famed for 7th - and 8th-century shore temples and rock-cut monuments-ancient stone artistry between casuarina groves and the sea.

Marina Beach

Arignar Anna Zoological Park (Vandalur Zoo) lies south of the city centre and Chennai International Airport. Established in 1855 as India's first public zoo, it is one of South Asia's largest zoological gardens and a rewarding half-day visit.

Auroville, Puducherry

Roughly 15 km from Pondicherry, Auroville was founded in 1968 as an international township dedicated to human unity. The Matrimandir and surrounding greenbelt offer architecture, quiet walks, and a contemplative contrast to the city pace.

Kapaleeshwarar Temple

Part of the Government Museum, Chennai-among the oldest museums in the subcontinent, founded in 1851-the bronze galleries span six buildings and dozens of galleries, showcasing masterpieces ideal between congress sessions.

Parthasarathy Temple

This Triplicane landmark enshrines Vishnu as Parthasarathy-Krishna as charioteer to Arjuna in the Mahabharata. Ancient texts recall lily ponds and tulsi groves here; the temple's layered history and festival calendar draw devotees and visitors alike.

St. Thomas Cathedral Basilica

San Thome Basilica in Mylapore is a national shrine and minor basilica built over the traditional tomb of St. Thomas. The Portuguese rebuilt the site in 1523; neo-Gothic renovations in the 19th century shaped the striking façade you see today.

Wallajah Mosque

Triplicane's "Big Mosque" was completed in 1795 in Mughal style for the Arcot nawabs' family. Granite construction, a spacious prayer hall, courtyard, and ablution tank make it one of Chennai's most architecturally significant Islamic monuments.

Valluvar Kottam

A monument to classical Tamil poet Thiruvalluvar, centred on a 133-foot stone chariot whose height echoes the 133 chapters of Tirukkural. Inscriptions and quiet gardens make it a meaningful cultural pause in central Chennai.

Dakshina Chitra

This living-history museum on the ECR recreates vernacular homes, crafts, and performing arts from Tamil Nadu and neighbouring states. Workshops and rotating exhibits offer an accessible immersion in South Indian design and tradition.

Fort St. George

Founded in 1644, Britain's first bastion in India still houses Tamil Nadu's legislature precinct and the Fort Museum. Exhibits trace Chennai's colonial evolution-an efficient visit for anyone interested in how the modern city took shape.

Elliot's Beach

A quieter stretch of the Chennai coast in Besant Nagar, Elliot's Beach is popular for evening walks, sea breeze, and the Karl Schmidt Memorial. Cafés and eateries nearby make it an easy unwind after congress sessions.

Covelong Beach

South of Chennai near Kovalam village, Covelong is known for its crescent bay, fishing boats, and water sports. The historic Dutch fort and seaside resorts make it a relaxed half-day escape from the city.

Tirupathi Temple

The Tirumala Venkateswara Temple at Tirupati is one of eight Svayam vyakta kshetras dedicated to Vishnu. In Andhra Pradesh, about 150 km from Chennai, it is a major pilgrimage centre with historic shrines in the Tirupati district.
